

HOUSE OF THE WEEK

A Modern Take on the Classic Farmhouse

©www.ePlans.com

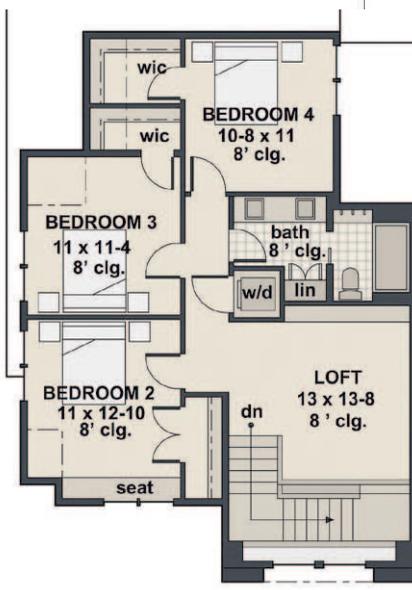

With an eye-catching exterior, this farmhouse house plan boasts a covered entrance that welcomes guests with a modest and cheerful veranda.

This plan takes the modern farmhouse look to a whole other level. Elongated windows render a classic look and invite the outdoors in. Inside, an open floor plan caters to family and entertaining. A large kitchen island provides ample seating, while a handy mudroom (with lockers!) is just steps away next to the 2-car garage and laundry room for added convenience. A covered back porch provides a nice place for homeowners to unwind after a long day. Other highlights we love: a loft area on the second level, an eating bar that opens to the rear covered porch, and an office space tucked away on the main level.

Bright and open, this modern layout feels breezy and airy with no shortage of space.
